

CONCEPT: BETA HYDROGEN

□ Elimination reactions remove β -hydrogens to create double bonds.

- The number of non-equivalent β -carbons with at least one _____ determines the number of possible products.

EXAMPLE: Identify the number of unique products that could be obtained through elimination.

